Stylish and safe: flat TV wall mount for TVs from 40 to 100 inches

Design and safety go hand in hand with this COMFORT Fixed TV wall mount. Your TV is mounted almost flat against the wall, like a painting. The space between the TV and the wall is only 2.2 cm. The wall mount is suitable for TVs from 40 to 100 inches and weighing up to 75 kg. If you don't need to tilt or turn your TV, this COMFORT Fixed TV wall mount is a solution that will give you years of pleasure.

The certainty that your TV will be mounted nice and safely

Accidents can happen at any time. It is therefore best to mount your valuable TV as flat and securely as possible against the wall. The COMFORT Fixed TV wall mount is ideal for this. It allows you to mount your TV not only safely, but also in an attractive and stylish way. The unique ClickLoc™ security system ensures that your TV is locked with an audible click. Soft patches on the wall mount protect the back of your TV against possible scratches during mounting. Easy access to cables. The wall mount has a special maintenance position, which allows easy access to cables or USB sticks after installation. Easy installation. COMFORT Fixed TV wall mounts are easy to install. The wall mount comes with a Quick Installation Guide with clear instructions. You can also view the detailed manual and installation video online. To help you get started, a drilling template, screws and Fischer® DuoPower plugs are included in the packaging. A spirit level is built into the wall mount. And with our free DrillRight™ AR App, it's easy to mark out your first drill hole.
