

JBL CD350 Classic

Compact Disc Player – Walnut

JBL

The JBL CD350 Classic is inspired by the JBL SA600 amplifier from the 1960's, with retro styling and walnut veneer side panels to make the CD350 Classic the perfect partner for classic and retro Hi-Fi systems. It perfectly matches JBL Classic and Studio Monitor walnut finished loudspeakers on the outside, along with the JBL SA550 amplifier. On the inside, the JBL CD350 is a modern CD player for today with advanced high resolution digital technology for bit perfect sound from your music collection, and a robust tray loading mechanism.
